Dear students

“People who use time wisely spend it on activities that advance their overall purpose in life”- John C Maxwell

With the tagline “By the Students, For the Students and Of the Students” we are proud to have ten vibrant and successful Societies operating in the school. The idea is to give our students the experience to work in the field of their interest, encouraging them to involve themselves and contribute to the growth of the society as a whole. Given below are the list of Societies offered to you along with the registration links.

Kindly ensure that you enroll into ANY ONE of the Societies so as to engage with the larger student community for exchange of ideas. This will not only be an enriching experience of discovering yourself but will also add to your resume, which may help you in your college admission process.
